Biographical and historical information

Dr. William Billings Aspinwall, was born in in Loudonville, New York in November 1874. He graduated from Albany Academy in 1892, from Harvard College in 1896, and received two degrees from the New York State College for Teachers in 1900 and 1901. Received his PhD from the University of Paris in 1904. He taught at the New York State College for Teachers from 1900 to 1912, and in 1912 he was hired as the third principal of the Worcester Normal School. It was during his tenure that the Worcester Normal School became the Worcester State Teachers College and moved to its present Chandler Street campus in 1932 and assumed the title of president. Dr. Aspinwall served the school for 28 years, retiring in 1940. He died in Worcester on January 5, 1955, and after cremation he was interred in the Albany Rural Cemetery in New York.
SCOPE AND CONTENT

The materials found in this collection reflects the Worcester Normal School under the leadership of President William B. Aspinwall during the late 1920s. Most of the materials are from the three year period between 1926 and 1928, and include correspondence with various businesses, individuals, and institutions both public and private.
